TRACK

Twenty boys reported out for track for the 1954 season, with thirteen finishing. The Fowler track team participated in the following meets: Garden City Relays, Meade Relays, Coldwater Relays, K. U. Relays, Scott City Relays and the Cimarron Invitational Meet. The Iroquois League was held at Coldwater. Protection placed first and Fowler placed second. Fowler lost first place by 1 3/5 points. Norman Krisle was chosen track Captain. Norman did especially well in the shot-put. Others who stood out individually were: David Milford in the dashes, Denis Crecelius in the javelin, and Kenneth Flinn in the hurdles. Nine boys qualified for the Regional meet at Garden City. Kenneth Flinn qualified for the State meet. Fourteen boys lettered. Coach Mikkelsen was track coach.
